Now, THEREFORE, We do by these Our Instructions under Our Royal Sign Manual hereby revoke the aforesaid Instructions and declare Our pleasure to be as follows:—

A.—INTRODUCTORY.

I. Under these Our Instructions, unless the context otherwise require, the term "Governor-General" shall include every person for the time being acting as Governor-General according to the provisions of the Act.

II. Our Governor-General shall, with all due solemnity, cause Our Commission under Our Royal Sign Manual appointing him to be read and published in the presence of the Chief Justice of India for the time being or, in his absence, other Judge of the Federal Court, and of so many of the members of the Executive Council of Our Governor-General as may conveniently be assembled.

III. Our Governor-General shall take the oath of allegiance and the oath for the due execution of the office of Our Governor-General of India and for the due and impartial administration of justice, in the form hereto appended, which oaths the said Chief Justice or, in his absence, any Judge of the Federal Court, shall, and is hereby required to, tender and administer unto him.

IV. And We do authorize and require Our Governor-General by himself or by any other person to be appointed by him in that behalf to administer to every person appointed by Us or by the Governor-General in Council to be a member of the Governor-General's Executive Council and to every person appointed by him to be a Chief Commissioner the oaths of allegiance and of office and of secrecy hereto appended.

V. And we do further direct that every person who under these Instructions shall be required to take an oath may make an affidavit in place of an oath if he has any objection to making an oath.

VI. The provisions of the last four preceding paragraphs shall not apply to any person holding office at the date of the commencement of Part III of the Act.

B.—IN REGARD TO THE EXECUTIVE AUTHORITY OF THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

VII. It is Our will and pleasure that Our Governor-General shall use all endeavour consistent with the fulfilment of his responsibilities to Us and to Our Parliament for the welfare of Our Indian subjects, that the administration of the matters committed to the charge of Our Governor-General in Council may be conducted in harmony with the wishes of Our said subjects as expressed by the representatives in the Indian Legislature so far as the same shall appear to him to be just and reasonable; and shall so order the administration of his government as to further the policy of the Act for its conversion into a Federation of all India.

C.—IN REGARD TO RELATIONS BETWEEN THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL AND THE PROVINCES.

VIII. Whereas it is expedient for the common good of British India that the authority of Our Governor-General in Council and of the Indian Legislature in those matters which are by law assigned to them should prevail:

And whereas at the same time it is the purpose of the Act that the Governments and Legislatures of the Provinces should be free in their own sphere to pursue their own policy:

And whereas in the interest of the harmonious co-operation of the several members of the body politic, the Act has empowered Our Governor-General to exercise, at his discretion, certain powers affecting the relations between his Government and the Provinces:

It is Our will and pleasure that Our Governor-General in the exercise of those powers should give unbiased consideration as well to the views of the Governments of the Provinces as to those of his own Government whenever those views are in conflict and, in particular, when it falls to him to exercise his power to assent or to the Governor of a Province for the purpose of assenting that the executive authority of the Governor-General in Council is not impeded or prejudiced, or his power to determine whether Provincial law or Central law shall regulate a matter in the sphere in which both Legislatures have power to make laws.

IX. It is Our desire that Our Governor-General shall by all reasonable means encourage consultation with a view to closer action between his Government and the Provinces and between the Provinces themselves. It is further Our will and pleasure that Our Governor-General shall endeavour to secure the co-operation of the Provincial Governments in the maintenance of such Central agencies and institutions for research as may serve to assist the conduct by Provincial Governments of their own affairs.

X. In particular We require Our Governor-General before giving his previous sanction to any legislative proposal which it is proposed to introduce in the Indian Legislature for the imposition or variation of taxes or duties by which the revenues of the provincial Governments are or may be directly affected or for varying the meaning of the expression "agricultural income," or for alteration of the principles on which under the provisions of the Act moneys are or may be distributed in the Provinces, to ascertain by the method which appears to him best suited to the circumstances of each case the views of those Governments upon the proposal.

XI. Before granting his previous sanction to the introduction into the Indian Legislature of any Bill or amendment whereby it is proposed to authorize the Governor-General in Council to give directions to a Province as to the carrying into execution in that Province of any Act of the Indian Legislature relating to a matter specified in Part II of the Concurrent Legislative List appended to the Act, it is Our will and pleasure that Our Governor-General shall take care to see that the Governments of the Provinces which would be affected by any such measure have been duly consulted upon the proposal, and upon any other proposals which may be contained in any such measure which involve the imposition of expenditure upon the revenues of the Province.

XII. In considering whether he shall give his assent to any Provincial law relating to a matter enumerated in the Concurrent Legislative List, which has been reserved for his consideration on the ground that it contains provisions repugnant to the provisions of an Act of the Indian Legislature, Our Governor-General, while giving full consideration to the proposals of the Provincial Legislature, shall have due regard to the importance of preserving substantially unimpaired the uniformity of law which the Indian Codes have hitherto embodied.

D.—MATTERS AFFECTING THE LEGISLATURE.

XIII. Without prejudice to the generality of his powers as to reservation of Bills, Our Governor-General shall not assent to Our sanction, to, but shall reserve for the consideration of Our pleasure, any Bill of any of the classes herein specified, that is to say:—

- (a) any Bill the provisions of which would repeat or be repugnant to the provisions of any Act of Parliament extending to British India;
- (b) any Bill which in his opinion would, if it became law, so derogate from the powers of the High Court of any Province as to endanger the position which those Courts are by the Act designed to fill;
- (c) any Bill regarding which he feels doubt whether it does, or does not, offend against the purposes of Chapter III, Part V, or section 110 of the Act;

(6) any Bill passed by a Provincial Legislature and reserved for his consideration which would alter the character of the Permanent Settlement.

XIV. It is further Our will and pleasure that in pursuance of the Agreement made between Us and His Exalted Highness the Nizam of Hyderabad as contemplated in Part III of the Act, Our Governor-General in declaring his assent to any Bill of the Legislature of the Central Provinces and Berar which has been reserved for his consideration, shall declare that his assent to the Bill in its application to Berar has been given by virtue of the Agreement between Us and His Exalted Highness the Nizam.

R.—GENERAL.

XV. And generally Our Governor-General shall do all that in him lies to maintain standards of good administration, to promote all measures tending to moral, social and economic welfare and tending to fit all classes of the population to take their due share in public life; and to secure amongst all classes and creeds co-operation, goodwill and mutual respect for religious beliefs and sentiments, and he shall further have regard to this Instruction in the exercise of the powers by law conferred upon him in relation to matters whether of legislation or of executive government.

XVI. And finally it is Our will and pleasure that Our Governor-General should so exercise the trust reposed in him that the partnership between India and the United Kingdom within Our Empire may be furthered, to the end that India may attain its due place among our Dominions.

XVII. And We do hereby charge Our Governor-General to communicate these Our Instructions to the Members of his Executive Council and to publish the same in such manner as he may think fit.

APPENDIX.

Condition of Issue
1. Petroleum shall be kept only in the storage tanks and storage and filling sheds or other approved places within the installations specified for the purpose on the plan attached hereto.

2. (3) The tank or tanks shall be supported so as to prevent foundation and shall be constructed of mild or unalloyed steel of substantial construction, or shall be partially earth or concrete. The containers then tested shall contain only one of the following classes of petroleum, shall be of constant material to contain the quantity of petroleum specified under the class to be tested and shall be constructed and maintained so to prevent the escape therefrom of any petroleum in the form of liquid, whether under the action of fire or otherwise.

(d) Desperatus periculosus—30 per cent more petroleum than the tank or tanks are capable of containing.

(b) Non-destructive petroleum other than heavy petroleum—the amount of petroleum the tests on tanks are capable of measuring.

(f) Neodymium—the source of neodymium, the largest tank in the refinery is capable of producing.

Provided that heavy petroleum may be stored in the same enclosure as flammable petroleum, either than heavy petroleum if the diameter under (c) above is observed.

[illegible]

3. All tanks shall be fitted with a vent pipe leading over the open air, this open end being covered with fine mesh net or other non-obstructing material, with a piece of mesh net two inches or less in length, and fitted with a hood so the tank shall be fitted with an appeared, relief valve or other approved means for preventing dangerous internal or external pressure being released.

c. Cost over values are not permitted on any task and all values in an evaluation must be progressively smaller in a sequence thereby indicating the direction of upward and downward the value.

2. Pipes shall be placed only in the positions shown on the plan attached hereto and they shall together with all accessories and fittings be so constructed and maintained as to prevent leakage of petroleum.

6. Staircase flying leads shall be constructed of suitable noncombustible material. The building shall not be constructed with and shall be surrounded by a fireproof wall of noncombustible material. The walls and floor shall be suitably braced to form a ramp or catwalk and more than two feet deep. A combination of these methods is permitted. The building shall be constructed so that the fireproofing capacity will contain the total quantity of petroleum liquids in any tank as in process in the building and which are not combusted and maintained as to the fireproofing of the building. The building shall be of a form of liquid chamber under the action of fire or otherwise. In the case of dangerous petroleum is partly dangerous and partly non-dangerous petroleum, the fireproofing shall be of a type which will contain the maximum quantity of liquid in any tank as in process in the building. The design and construction must be approved by the fire department and the fire insurance company.

7. Every storage or filling shed in which dangerous materials are stored, filled shall be completely restricted near the ground level immediately above any walk constructed to prevent any leakage of petroleum and also near or on the roof. The ventilation shall be provided with two thicknesses of non-combustible or other non-accumulating material were gases at work not less than 18" to the lower level.

8. (c) A distance of not less than 100 feet shall be kept clear between (1) a storage tank and any other storage tank, and between a storage tank and

Storage racks are located in storage tanks and in storage or filling shed, the distance being measured between the proximal points of the proximal ends of the storage racks or storage or filling sheds, as the case may be.

SCHEDULE II

Method of Testing Petroleum.

Determination of Flashing-Point.

(See Rules 137 and 138.)

1. APPARATUS TO BE USED.

The flashing-point of petroleum and petroleum mixtures which are fluid at 50°F. and which flash not above 120°F. shall be determined by the Abel apparatus as hereinafter defined.

The flashing-point of petroleum and petroleum mixtures which are solid at 50°F. and which flash not above 120°F. shall be determined by the Abel apparatus, the test being modified as hereinafter described.

The flashing-point of petroleum and petroleum mixtures which flash above 120°F. shall be determined by the Presby-Sutton apparatus as hereinafter defined.

2. PREPARATION OF SAMPLES FOR TEST.

At least one fluid portion of the sample, sufficient for three tests, should be transferred from the bottle into which the sample has been drawn on a pint flask or bottle, which should be immersed in water sufficiently cooled, with a thermometer, introduced into the sample, indicates a temperature not exceeding 50°F.

3. (1) Abel apparatus.

The apparatus to be employed shall be the Abel petroleum testing apparatus modified by having an all rays provided with a mirror. It shall be constructed in the dimensions herein specified within the limits of accuracy permitted by the tolerances set forth below.

Oil Cup.—The oil cup consists of a cylindrical vessel open at the top and fitted on the outside with a flat circular flange projecting at right angles.

Within the cup, bored through the wall and after soldered or brazed in place, there is a gauge measuring at a point of view lens upwards and downwards as it passes.

Material.—Brass or gunmetal.

Cover.—The cap is provided with a close-fitting cover with a dovetail projecting rim loosely meeting the flange on the cup. The dovetail projecting rim is made solid with the top as above indicated or turned on place. Upon the cover are mounted a thermometer socket, transducer in support on oil test lamp, a pair of guides to which a slide moves, and a white lens. The top of the cover is pierced by three rectangular holes, symmetrically placed on a diameter, one on the centre and the other two as close as practicable to the outer sides of the centre one and opposite each other. These three holes are covered or uncovered by means of a slide moving in vertically disposed guides. The slide has five projections, one corresponding in all particulars to the centre hole in the cover and the other to one of the holes at the side. The movement of the slide is restricted by suitable stops, and its length and the disposition of the holes are such that at one extreme of the movement of the slide, the holes in the cover are simultaneously just completely opened and at the other extremity of the movement of the slide they are completely closed.

The transducer supporting the test lamp are fixed on the top of the guide and the lens is connected to the transducer so that it is free to revolve. The lamp is provided with a pit to contain a wick and is so arranged that when the slide is moved so as to uncover the holes, the test lamp is raised to a position such as the slide and tilted over the central hole in such a way that the lens or wick of the cover bears the middle of the lens at the hole in the pit when in the lower position. The flame then assumes a vertical position unless the hole in lens deviates.

A suitably mounted gas jet can be substituted for the lamp.

Drugs of the world

If you fill up food oil is being tested, the sample shall be dried by the following method:—

One kilowatt gram of well-dried granular sodium nitrate is placed in a dry end-mouth stoppered glass bottle.

The kernel and the embryo of the oil are then passed upon the alkaline solution. The stopper is removed in order to try. The bottle is then well-shaken and is stood up as usual at water, the level of the water being up to the neck of the bottle. The water is then heated to a temperature of 50°C (122°F) and is maintained at this temperature for a period of several hours, the bottle and its contents being well-shaken up at intervals of about an hour. At the end of the treatment the bottle and its contents are allowed to cool at atmospheric temperature; the seeds in them are then dried in a desiccator for the removal of the last traces of water.
